"In a world of 'fast-paced activities' and 'modern' characters and heroes, it was refreshing to sit calmly and listen to music and rhymes that are 'old-fashioned' and 'traditional.'" Beth Works, stay-at-home mom of five.

Welcome to Mother Goose Land . . .

where cows can jump over the moon and geese lay eggs of pure gold. Find out what the Little Girl with the curl in the middle of her forehead did one night when the moon shone as bright as day. What happened at the fair that day when Simple Simon met the pie man? Audiences of all ages enjoy hearing the old familiar rhymes woven into stories that only Mother Goose can tell.

“My children loved the singing and the puppets. It was the Mother Goose storybooks come to life. My children had fun!” Sue Auer, Stay-at-home mom

“Good audience participation. It’s great to reinforce nursery rhymes with young children. They need to be exposed to the rhythm and rhymes that nursery rhymes provide.”

Kindergarten teacher

For children up to age 4, a twenty minute performance is advised. For children 4 and up, the performance can be from 30 to 45 minutes. Mother Goose also makes a wonderful addition to festivals as a strolling performer.

Judith Wynhausen has been acting for children since 1975. She earned degrees in music education and theatre, with an emphasis on children’s theatre. She also completed training as a Waldorf kindergarten teacher.

Judith has taught kindergarten and yoga, leads seminars in the Alexander Technique, plays in an African marimba ensemble, raises chickens and horses, and really does have a life goose! She lives in Joplin, MO with her husband and two of her four children.

Educator’s study guides are available for all programs. Guides may be printed from www.judithtells.com, or a copy will be provided on request.
